

Fulbright Specialist Project #6376 – Schedule of Activities - IAMO

Prof. Dr. Steven E. Wallis, PhD, is a visiting Fulbright Specialist with a goal of supporting IAMO scholars and students. He brings a new tool – a heterodox approach that allows for the objective analysis and improvement of conceptual systems such as theories and policy models (plans).

Link to Prof. Dr. Wallis' IAMO Blog: <http://fsp-iamo.blogspot.com/>

Venue: IAMO, Theodor-Lieser-Str. 2, 06120 Halle (Saale), conference room 1

Time: 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Date Event	Title
Wednesday – June 3 Introductory Lecture	Evaluating, Integrating, and Choosing the best Theories and Policies for Research and Practice	Staff of all three departments of IAMO
Monday – June 8	Heterodox Directions for Understanding Conceptual Systems	Lecture for undergraduate students
Tuesday – June 9	Heterodox Directions for Improving Conceptual Systems	Lecture for graduates
Friday – June 12	Philosophy of Science and the Limits of Positivism: Systems Thinking and Complexity Theory	Advanced, in-depth seminar for interested scholars, students
Monday – June 22	Complex Adaptive Systems and Alternative Logics for Improving Conceptual Systems	Advanced, in-depth seminar for interested scholars, students
Tuesday – June 23	Abstraction, Causality, and Orthogonality for Improving Conceptual Systems	Advanced, in-depth seminar for interested scholars
Wednesday – June 24	Ethics, Multicultural Perspectives, and Interdisciplinary Collaboration	Advanced, in-depth seminar for interested scholars
Wednesday – July 1 Workshop 9:00 AM - 3:00PM	Collaborative Workshop for Improving Conceptual Systems: Focus on Academic Theories	For interested scholars, students
Thursday – July 2 Workshop 9:00 AM - 3:00PM	Collaborative Workshop for Improving Conceptual Systems Associated with Policy Models	For interested scholars, students